

Julian, who is 12 years old, goes out to lunch with his mother. He orders a milkshake and he could swear the waitress rolls her eyes at him. When the waitress comes back, she goes to set the milkshake down but accidentally spills it. It goes all over Julian's lap. The waitress starts crying and runs away. Julian's mother starts to clean up the milkshake, but the restaurant manager comes over and apologizes and cleans it all up.

Julian, who is 12 years old, goes out to lunch with his mother. He orders a milkshake and he could swear the waitress rolls her eyes at him. When the waitress comes back, she goes to set the milkshake down but accidentally spills it. It goes all over Julian's lap. The waitress starts crying and runs away. Julian's mother starts to clean up the milkshake, but the restaurant manager comes over and apologizes and cleans it all up.

Write this scene from Julian's point of view.

Write this scene from the waitress's point of view.

Write this scene from Julian's mother's point of view.

Write this scene from the manager's point of view.